LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A $94,293

ed to Allied Telephone Co. yesterday by the Arkansas Public Service Commission which said it found the firm in "financial distress."

The boost is effective Sept. 1.
The PSC order said the increase would not be adverse to the public interest, and would give

Nixon Finds Cold Moscow Atmosphere

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—U.S. Vice President Richard M. Nixon flew into Moscow today with a plea for friendship. He found the atmosphere frigid — with Soviet President Nikita Khrushchev again blasting the United States for its attitude toward the Soviet Union.
The two leaders did not meet face to face; that was to come later. But while Nixon was getting an official welcome at the airport, Khrushchev was talking to a Sports Palace crowd welcoming him home from a 9-day trip to Poland. He again took the United States to task for pre-claiming this week as "Captive Nations Week."

"They send their governors here (referring to the recent visit of nine U.S. state governors). They send their vice president here.
They are opening an exhibit here
and then they do a thing like this."

Nixon's jet plane brought him
to Moscow in 10 hours 34 minutes.
He was met by Frol R. Kozlov, first deputy premier, who recently toured the United States. The Nixon trip is in effect an exchange visit. The vice president's official purpose is to open the U.S. exhibit Friday.

In his brief airport remarks,
Nixon warned that "another war"
"there will be no victors, only losers."

"There are grave and serious problems which divide us — differences which if not resolved could endanger the peace to which we are all dedicated," he said.

Mediators Arrange for Steel Talks

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal
mediators have arranged the first joint peace talks in the nine-day
old steel strike for next Monday.
But Joseph E. Finnegan, head of the Federal Mediation Service, repeated that he sees no early solution to the strike which has idled more than half a million steelworkers.

Meanwhile, the three top aluminum companies — Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser — rejected the United Steelworkers wage demands and lined up with the steel industry stand. The Steelworkers' contract with the aluminum companies expires July 31.

The aluminum companies followed the pattern of the original proposal by the steel producers to the union by urging the union to accept a one-year wage freeze and give up the cost-of-living escalator provision in the old agreements.

A total of 30,506 aluminum workers are represented by the union.
About 20,000 other aluminum workers are covered by other unions.

Study Group Vows Foreign Aid Necessary

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential study committee said today many forms of U.S. economic aid abroad must continue as long as the Communist threat exists.
The group recommended more selective choosing of recipient nations, however.

The committee also called for creation of a new government agency—to be set up outside the State Department—for administration of the major economic assistance programs. It said the "central weakness" at present is that these activities now are scatagencies.

report to Congress as a House Ap-

public charges of waste and mismanagement in the multibillion dollar foreign aid program.

Long Skips Striptease Act at Denver

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Gov.
Earl Long of Louisiana gave stripttease Tempest Storm the cold shoulder Wednesday night.
Long had a date with Miss Storm at 11 p. m.—as a night club patron, that is.

Miss Storm put on her show out
Long, 63, stayed in his hotel suite, dozing.

The governor watched four horse races at a race track in the afternoon, and said he won $10.
While sitting at the paddock club, he ordered an ounce of whisky with an ounce of mixer.

But the governor told the waitress,
"don't mix 'em. I don't trust people."

After gulping the whisky and mixer, Long ordered a glass of bottoms and a shoe of brand and chuckled: "Old Earl's a simple man."

During a press conference, he said he's "foolish enough to think I'll be re-elected governor of Louisiana, and I'll have something to do with the Louisiana delegation to the 1960 Democratic national convention."

Long also talked about two personal matters. He said in response to questions about possible impeachment: "They have the chance of a snowball in hell of impeaching me."

Another Clue to Missing War Bomber Crew

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—
Five days of search in the wastes
of Libya have produced another clue to the fate of nine U.S. airmen missing from a World War II Lombay.

U.S. AKR Force European headquarters said today that another piece of parachute has been found. It was picked up in the area where an earlier search last month discovered a trail of markers apparently left by the airmen
in a trek to death in the North African desert.

The Army mortuary search team messaged that up to Tuesday no trace of the airmen's remains had been found. This message added that the search will continue "until the entire critical area" — more than 1,000 square miles — is covered.

The ghost bomber, a four-engine
Liberator, had made a pilotless belly-landing on its return from bombing raid on Naples, Italy, in the moonless night of April 4, 1943.

It was found practically intact
by a team of geologists earlier this year on hump-backed sand 149 miles southeast of the Libyan port of Benghazi.

Nervy Young Man Masquerades as a Physician for 5 Months in Three Memphis Hospitals

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A
nervy young man who masquerad-ed as a physician and had his run of three Memphis hospitals for five months was foiled Wednesday
by an alert Negro porter.

Harold Lee Aldridge, who was nabbed on his 18th birthday, met his downfall when the Porter noticed Aldridge "wore his earphones funny."

When police arrested Aldridge
at the trailer where he lived with his mother and young bride, they found thousands of dollars worth of medical supplies which Aldridge is charged with stealing from the hospitals.

William Chandler, grew suspicious and called two detectives
when he noticed Aldridge wearing a stethoscope plugged in his ears instead of hanging around his neck.

Even Aldridge's bride of six months was taken in by the act.
She thought he was a medical student.

"I always wanted to be a doctor," Aldridge said, "but I had asthma and had to quit school. I don't know why I did it. I never used any of the stuff. Sometimes I got it out to look at it. It impressed my wife."

Aldridge said he often chatted
with patients about their ailments, but he denies ever attempting to treat anyone.

Aldridge was charged with 13
counts of grand larceny.

Youth Fires Into Crowd, 5 Wounded

NEW YORK (AP)—A teen-age boy fired a shotgun into a Bronx crowd Wednesday night, wounding five children and a man. He was shot to death minutes later by an off-duty policeman.

Police said the boy, Carlos Rosario, 16, had fought the night before in Crotina Park with Tommy Lee Allen, 23, a Negro. The pair met again Wednesday night. Rosario produced a shotgun, and Allen ran.

Rosario chased Allen and fired at him in a crowd. The pellets struck Allen in the left leg and sprayed five boys whose ages range from 7 to 11.

In his apartment nearby, Patrolman Walter W. Downs, 33, a Negro, heard the blast, he said he rushed to the street and ordered Rosario to halt and drop the shotgun. He said the boy lifted the gun and aimed, and Downs shot him down before he could fire.

Allen and the five boys were not in serious condition.

Libel Suit May Hear Tapes Soon

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas

testified today on the source of transcripts of tape recordings
which are the basis for a $500,000
libel suit filed by Arkansas Democrat reporter Bob Trout.

The Gazette and pinball machine distributors Cecil Hill and Harold Dumaway are defendants in the suit, in its fourth day of trial in Pulaski Circuit Court.

The tape recordings cover conversations Hill and Dumaway claim they had with Trout, over an alleged $2,000 payoff to the reporter to suppress articles on pinball machines.

Trout filed the libel suit after Dumaway and Hill made public the recordings, which he claims are false.

Russians Told to Relent or Berlin Talks Will Fail

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today there is no little hope for success of the Big Four conference unless Gromyko abandons key Soviet demands for a stopgap agreement on Berlin.

Herter made a new attack on Soviet proposals which he said would reserve the Soviet threat against West Berlin as a weapon against the West and would also turn over negotiations on German unification to an East-West German committee.

He branded these Soviet proposals obstacles to an accord and said that unless they can be overcome there is clearly little hope for the success of the Geneva conference.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—A new threat
from Nikita Khrushchev of Communist action against West Berlin today put pressure on the Western foreign ministers at the Big Four conference.

The Soviet Premier said in a joint Soviet-Polish communique at Warsaw that the Western stand at Geneva may lead to aggravation of a situation "pregnant with danger to the cause of peace in Europe."

The communique warned that if what it called the "abnormal situation" in Berlin—the Western occupation—is not liquidated, the Soviet Union and Poland "will support East Germany in measures which she may recognize as appropriate."

Khrushchev and the Poles repeated the original Soviet demands for peace treaties with the two Germanys and the transformation of West Berlin into a demilitarized "free city." And they repeated Khrushchev's threat to sign a peace treaty with East Germany
if the Allies do not meet the Communist demands. "This would give the East Germans control of supplies to the Allied garrisons in West Berlin raising the threat of a new Berlin blockade."

The new threat to use Soviet power against Berlin brought some renewal of the tension which had subsided somewhat as the Geneva negotiations dragged on.
But Khrushchev and the Poles
perhaps significantly set no time limit for achievement of their demands. And the communique indicated an agreement could wait for a summit conference.

The Western foreign ministers and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko meanwhile were deadlocked in negotiations to find a way out of the Berlin crisis.
Both sides declared they had no intention of backing down on key issues involving their basic and completely contradictory aims in Germany.

Faubus Denies Leggett Stay of Execution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Condemned slayer Emmet Earl Leggett's long string of successful appeals ran out yesterday as Gov.
Orval E. Faubus denied his plea for a stay of execution.

The 22-year-old killer is scheduled to die in Arkansas' electric chair at dawn tomorrow.

The appeal to Faubus was made by Leggett's attorney, Kenneth Coffelt, to delay the execution pending additional legal maneuvers.

Coffelt had no comment on Faubus' decision. The governor told the attorney, in a letter, that he had studied the petition for a stay
"carefully and prayerfully."

Leggett was convicted three years ago of the strangulation murder of Joe King, 14, at nearby Jacksonville. Since entering the death house shortly afterward, he has received nine stays of execution.

The King boy's mother entered the picture this week by appealing to Faubus to commute Leggett's sentence to life imprisonment.

Coffelt still has an appeal pending before the U.S. Supreme Court, and another before the Arkansas
Supreme Court on Pulaski Circuit Judge Wm. Kirby's refusal to dismiss rape charges against Leggett. Continued on Page Six

Waste Charge in Foreign Aid Aired

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charges of waste and mismanagement in the multimillion-dollar foreign aid program marked House subcommittee hearings made public today.

In one unnamed country investigators found a 20-year supply of WAC clothing, a 45-year supply of 30-caliber carbine ammunition, 70,000 sets of new tire chains, left outside without storage and more than a million new carbine and submachinegun clips wasting away.

In Pakistan, U.S. aid officials reportedly had a fleet of 220 passenger cars, 329 refrigerators and 1,027 native helpers for a staff of 271 Americans.

In Peru, a former aid official testified, the U.S. aid chief used American and Peruvian technicians to improve a livestock operation in which he was a partner. The chief later lost his job. The testimony was taken in closed sessions during May and June by the Appropriations subcommittee headed by Rep. Otto Passman (D-La.) in its yearly review of the aid program.

Administration officials denied some of the allegations and said corrective steps have been taken on others. In general, they pictured the continued large-scale aid sought by President Eisenhower for friendly nations as needed for American's survival in the cold war.

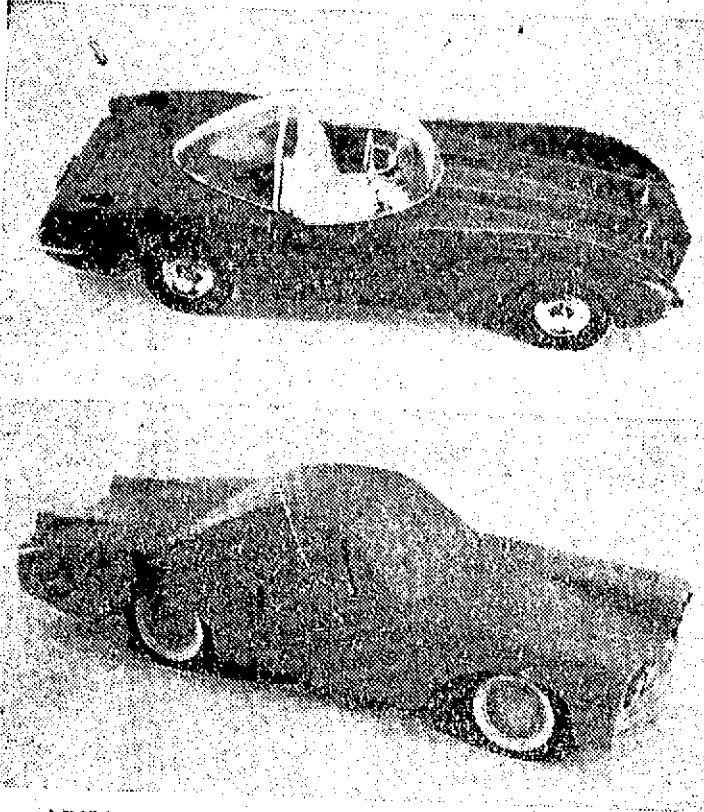

The hearings foreshadowed another round of congressional cutting of the aid program.

Congress Wednesday passed a compromise bill authorizing $2,556,200,000 in aid for the coming year, $333,200,000 below Eisenhower's recommendation. The measure only sets ceilings. The actual cash must be voted in an appropriation bill which starts its legislative journey in Passman's committee.

Arkansas Speed Limits 70 - 45

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Maximum and minimum speed limits on Arkansas' controlled access highways were set yesterday by the state Highway Commission.

The commission said maximum and minimum limits on roads where there is full control of access would be 70 and 45 miles per hour, except in areas where local conditions indicated lower limits.

On highways with partial control of access, limits will be posted after engineering and traffic investigations are made but will not exceed 70 miles an hour, the commission said.

The commission also authorized construction of area headquarters buildings at Benton and Corning at $20,000 each.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Laverne King of rural Fallbrook told Court Clerk Al Fern to keep calling if her telephone was busy when she was needed for jury duty. Her reason: She's on a 10-party line.

Child Killed in Electric Dryer

EPHRATA, Pa. (AP)—Six-year-old Park S. Fisher Jr. liked to turn things on. His father recalls Tuesday the elder Fisher found his son battered and burned to death in an electric dryer in the laundry room of the Fisher home in nearby Denver.

The coroner said the boy apparently turned on the dryer and crawled inside.

Senate Vote on Loyalty Oath

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate votes today on a bill to repeal the loyalty oath requirement in the National Defense Education Act.

The measure faces a cross fire of amendments. Students receiving federal college loans, fellowships or other benefits now are required by law to file a non-Communist affidavit and to swear allegiance to the United States.

The Arkansas State Bar Association was organized March 15, 1882.

Mere Regret Won't Ease Sting of Misspent Past

By DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: At present I have no problems — they are in the past. I'm happily married, mother of four and have just come to realize how shabbily I treated my own mother. I never helped around the house except to be waited on hand and foot and — suggest of all — was often downright nasty. Now that I see my mistakes, I'd like to save my sisters from the same regrets. Three of them are still at home and they are acting the same way I did. I'd give anything to be able to change the past and to keep them from having the same regrets. —Zelda

Dear Zelda: We are all endowed with the God-given privilege of free will. When we refuse to exercise it to do right, we have regrets — the most fruitless of all human emotions. We can never undo the past, so the thing to do is live the present according to conscience — not according to a life of ease. You knew that you were doing wrong at home but preferred the lazy life of self-indulgence. It will be as difficult to lead your sisters to the right path as it was for you to find it in time. They will come to the same conclusions you have — "Oh, if I could only do it all over again." To be fair, your mother was wrong, too, in spoiling you so. Don't make that mistake with your children. Talk to your sisters patiently and kindly. Try to teach them self-discipline and the value of sacrifice.

Dear Dorothy Dix: During the winter my husband takes me out quite often but in the summer his idea of a good Saturday night is to have friends in. This means fixing refreshments, washing dishes and spending most of the evening in the kitchen. My husband never helps with the work. How can I get him out Saturday nights? —Reluctant Hostess.

Dear R.H.: If you can't change 'em, join 'em. Summer is short, why not enjoy it? Stop balking and make your entertaining easier. Use paper containers, eliminate dish washing and make refreshments simple.

Dear Dorothy Dix: We have met a nice couple and enjoy being with them. Every time we go out, his wife brings her mother and daughter along. I believe in families being together but I think this is too much. —Winnie

Dear Winnie: This is indeed carrying lovelessness a bit far. Without hurting feelings, all you can do is suggest that you go out occasionally as two couples.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper.

California Girl Selected Miss U. S. A.

By PATRICK MCNULTY

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Gentlemen may prefer blondes, but the judges' pick as Miss U.S.A. in the Miss Universe pageant is a statuesque brunette from California.

Terry Huntington, 19, mixes tonight with 33 foreign ladies in the ninth annual international beauty contest Miss Universe will be selected Friday.

The UCLA dancer major has blue-green eyes, stands 5 feet 6½ inches and measures 36-23-36. She was selected Wednesday night before 4,000 spectators.

Runners-up, in order, were Miss Texas, Carolyn Douglas; Miss Florida, Nantia Green; Miss Georgia, Dorothy Taylor; and Miss New York, Arlene Nesbitt. "Baste Plicka," shouted Miss Sweden above the applause in Memorial Auditorium, when her roommate's victory was announced. This roughly translates to: "She's a beauty," explained Miss Sweden. She was so happy over Terry's victory she cried.

Miss U.S.A. remained composed as she sat on the queen's dais and received the pearl-studded crown, while reporters shouted and cameramen popped pictures. But she began to cry beautifully when her brother Phil, 22, resplendent in his Army uniform, stepped up and embraced her.

"I knew you could do it, Sis," said her crewcut brother, a June graduate of the U.S. Military Academy.

Then her mother, Mrs. Iola Huntington of Mount Shasta, in northern California, elbowed through newsmen, photographers and hangers-on and took her daughter in her arms.

Miss U.S.A. wants to become a dance instructor for a few years, and then settle down and raise a family.

But first, she'd probably like to be Miss Universe.

Ask Change of Venue of Teacher Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Little Rock segregationist leaders have asked for a change of venue in trial of a multi-million dollar libel suit filed by 39 teachers.

Ed McKinley and Rev. M. L. Moser Jr., the defendants, contended they could not get a fair trial in Pulaski County and produced affidavits from several persons supporting this stand. Their request was filed in Pulaski Circuit Court yesterday.

The suit was filed by teachers affected in an attempted "burrage" by three former members of the Little Rock School Board. McKinley was one of the three. He and the other two, Ben Rowland and Robert W. Lester, were recalled by voters as a result.

Moser led an organization which spearheaded the drive against recalling the three segregationists.

The suit is in connection with a newspaper advertisement in which purported reasons for the teachers' dismissal were set out.

The teachers are asking more than three million dollars.

THE LONG, QUIET DAY—Striking steelworkers Roy Senior, left, and Matt Klein share a placard as they peacefully picket in South San Francisco, Calif. Half-million steelworkers have been idled by the sixth industry-wide walkout in the 23-year history of the United Steelworkers.

and in contracting instalment debt for future payment.
Now look at the wherewithal out of which present and future consumer spending could come.
Personal income has climbed to a record annual rate of $33 billion dollars, the Department of Commerce figures. The first half sum is 6 per cent higher than personal income in the first six months of 1958.
Wages and salary totals at an annual rate are 12 1/2 billion dollars higher than at the start of this year.
American consumers as a whole have increased savings tucked away, giving them confidence, and also offering a source they could tap for future spending.
In addition to these more or less liquid assets, individuals are acquiring equity in new homes and in consumer durable goods.
Such additions last year are put by the commission as 16 billion dollars in homes and 37 billion dollars in durables.
Against this should be balanced the rise in consumer debt, particularly in instalment debt.
And a big item on the liability

Chapter XXII
Owen Blanchard was trying to throw her off now, trying to plead that the Libby Blanchard who had been working a month ago was not the woman that Diane Paige referred to.
"The Libby Blanchard I'm talking about is the one who married Ernest, your son," Diane said. "She had a little girl, about the age of the girl I found on the bench. I can also prove that."
side of the report at the moment is the steel strike. This will cut into the total of wage and salary payments, consumer purchases in some areas and corporate earnings in some industries.
But unless the strike is a long one, the consumer spending totals look good.
A few days ago, this Libby came into the village and went into Mel Calder's store, probably to ask about you. Perhaps she needed help. The little girl left her Teddy bear in the store, between two bolts of yard goods where I found it. You know what happened after that."
Blanchard's eyes narrowed. "What happened?" he asked.
"I took that Teddy bear to the little girl I had found on the beach," Diane went on. "After you took the child—you or Letitia took her—either you or your housekeeper burned the Teddy bear down by the water's edge so there would be no trace of the child. But, there was. The shoe-bitten eyes didn't burn it have them."

"Shoe-bitten eyes?" Blanchard's voice had a tone of incredulity, but to Diane it was not convincing. "My dear woman."
"Shoe-bitten eyes from the child's Teddy bear," said Diane. "After Libby found out where you lived, she came to you. Perhaps she wanted to plead for help, which you refused to give. What happened then, Mr. Blanchard? Did you kill this woman and throw her body into the sea? Did you draw her child—your granddaughter out there too?"
Owen Blanchard shook his head. "What are you saying, Mrs. Paige? Are you accusing me?"
"No," said Diane. "No—I won't believe that you did such a thing. You're a cruel, selfish man, but not that bad. I think Libby Blanchard walked out into the surf holding that little child's hand."
"You're suggesting suicide?"
"I think Libby is dead and that you sent her to her death by refusing the help that she needed and asked for. But the child escaped death and returned to the beach, where I found her. You heard that I had found the little girl and you couldn't afford to let the truth be known. Not you, with all your proud family traditions. Not you, Mr. Blanchard. Instead you would try to drive me mad in order to keep up your illusions and your reputation for being a kind and generous and righteously stern man. That's what you tried to do. But it didn't work. And you can't make it now."
Owen Blanchard said quietly. "I'll call Constable Maynor for you. This has gone too far. Mrs. Paige."
"When you talk to the constable," Diane said, undaunted, "ask him to bring the local undertaker and men to open the grave under Libby Blanchard's headstone."
Blanchard raised his eyes but said nothing.
"I drove a metal rod into that grave, Mr. Blanchard," she went on. "And there is no coffin there."
"What?"
Blanchard had heard, but he couldn't seem to make himself believe what he had heard.
"Nothing is buried at that spot," Diane said. "Nothing and nobody. You told the village that Libby was dead. You made a grave. You said Libby was buried there and your friends accepted your word because they knew you had hated her, resented her. They would realize that you would hardly be inclined to give her a public funeral. But Libby Blanchard isn't in that grave. Not yet."
"But they'll find her body," Diane went on. "Then what, Mr. Blanchard? Go ahead, telephone Constable Maynor. Let him and anyone else stand by, while the grave is opened."
Blanchard took a deep breath and said slowly and wearily. "The child is upstairs, Mrs. Paige. She's quite all right."

Bets on Dog Racing Show an Increase
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Dog racing enthusiasts have bet $2,628,653 since Southland Racing Corp.'s greyhound season opened June 19, the state Revenue Department said yesterday.
This is an increase of $348,626 over the mutual total for the same period last year. The state's share of 1958 track revenues, through Saturday, was $152,787, up $31,335. Attendance at Southland this year is 95,170, compared to 88,031 for the same time last year.

Cuba Workers Ask Return of Castro
HAVANA (AP)—Cuba's giant Confederation of Workers called a one-hour general strike Thursday to demand that Fidel Castro return to the government.
Castro quit as prime minister Friday in a maneuver that forced out Manuel Urrutia as president. There has been talk since that he might put in a front man to look after the administrative details in which he has no interest while devoting his own time to his land reform program.

Bombs Blast in Guatemala Embassy
GUATEMALA (AP)—Two bombs were exploded Tuesday night in front of the American Embassy and another against the palace of the Roman Catholic archbishop of Guatemala. The blasts damaged the buildings slightly, but no one was hurt.

Strange But Long Moves in Quietly
DENVER (AP)—Louisiana's 63-year-old Gov. Earl K. Long (died and unshaven, came to Denver Tuesday night on a vacation trip. He went silently to a small suite in the Brown Palace Hotel brushing past a crowd of news men and other who had gathered to greet him.

Patterson said he had heard the tape recordings played the day before at Dunaway's home. Little Rock Mayor Werner Knapp was on the stand briefly but was excused when defense objections prevented Trout's attorneys from obtaining any testimony from him.

Democrat city editor Marcus George then took the stand to testify on articles which Trout had written in connection with pinball operations.

Trout yesterday denied the existence of the whole tapes prior to March 27, 1958. The purported payoff occurred March 5, 1958, according to Dunaway and Hill.

Trout has contended the tapes were altered or otherwise falsified. He said he discussed a $2,000 sum with the pinball operators in February of this year in connection with a donation by pinball machine operators to the March of Dimes.

on a bill authorizing $3,550,000,000 in foreign aid for the coming year. The amount, covering military as well as economic assistance, was only $353,200,000 below Eisenhower's recommendations. The new criticism, however, was a definite indicator of further cutting efforts when the actual money question comes up in an appropriation bill.

The Eisenhower study committee, headed by William H. Draper, former ambassador to NATO and former assistant secretary of the Army, said it is aware of such charges in connection with the economic aid aspects of the program. The committee said further:

"While we believe that the administration and coordination of these programs has improved in recent years, there is no question but that some of these criticisms are justified. However, the conclusion we reach is that the programs must be continued and better administered, not emasculated or abandoned."

The group said the choice of countries and projects must be on the basis of "which will yield the greatest in increasing free world strength."

It called the Communist threat an "indivisible military-economic-political menace" and said the U.S. aid efforts must go on "for as long as the Communist threat exists, and certainly until greater economic progress has been

After meeting Wednesday with union representatives and twice with steel industry negotiators, Finnegan said: "We feel we now have a better orientation on the differences" between the two sides.

He plans to meet today with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell in Washington.

Mitchell is acting as a fact-finder for President Eisenhower, who could halt the strike—at least temporarily—at any time through emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

Union negotiators had hoped that making some gains with the aluminum companies might set wage pattern for steel. The union had asked a 15-cents-an-hour package in each year of the new contract. Aluminum wages now average $2.51 an hour.

The steel strike started July 14 after weeks of unsuccessful negotiations during which the industry turned down demands for a 15-cents-an-hour annual package. Prestrike wages averaged $3.10 an hour. The companies said increases would force a rise in steel prices and spur inflation. The union said steel profits are big enough to cover a wage increase.

The strike has died about 45,500 workers in related fields such as coal, railroads, trucking, shipping and construction. The strike has cost an estimated 400 million dollars to the industry in business and to strikers in wages.

Also scheduled to die with Leggett is Lawrence Smith, 19, a Negro convicted for the fatal shooting of a Chicago County farmer. Faubus paid out of his own pocket for Smith's appeal to the state Supreme Court, but the conviction and death sentence were upheld.

"China and Russia are pursuing a barbaric and brutal method of achieving rapid economic growth at a tragically high cost in human life and in loss of freedom."

In calling for creation of a new agency, the committee recommended appointment of an outstanding individual, acceptable to the majority of states to head it. The committee was created by Eisenhower to determine the economic, military and economic aspects of the aid program.

The committee heard testimony from a number of sources, including a study of the economic situation of the world, and the committee will report to the president by July 15.

the Senate's criminal penalties for violation of union rights and substituted civil court injunctions against union leaders who denied members the exercise of their privileges.

It also cut down the authority of the secretary of labor to act in union election and rights cases, and relaxed Senate-passed restrictions against secondary boycotts, "hot cargo" contracts in interstate transportation, and organizational or "blackmail" picketing.

L. R. Pilot Will Attempt a Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Little Rock pilot will attempt to set a new distance record for "half-strength" airplanes—a twin-engine craft flying on one engine.

Richard Jagitsch, sales manager for a local aircraft firm, said the flight is scheduled Aug. 1. He will fly a Piper Apache plane twice around a loop of Arkansas. The route is from Little Rock west to Fort Smith, south to Texarkana, then back east and north to Pine Bluff and Memphis and return. The distance is 1,352 miles.

The present unofficial record for such flights is held by Victor Stadler of McAllen, Tex., who flew 1,248 miles in an Aero-Commander last April.

THEY'LL MEET IN MAY—Crucial contract renewal sessions between the steel industry and the United Steel Workers of America are slated to begin in New York late in May. Two key figures in the meetings will be, left, Conrad Cooper, a U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and the industry's chief bargainer; and David J. MacDonald, USW president.

Garland to Vote on Industrial Bond

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Garland County residents will vote next Tuesday on $310,000 industrial bond issue that, if approved, could bring a shoe factor to Hot Springs.

The Connors and Hoffman Footwear Co., Inc., of New Hampshire, is planning to open a new plant in the Hot Springs area if the industrial bond issue is approved. Dr. E. H. Dilly, vice president of the Garland County Industrial Development Corporation, said the factory would employ 400 persons and have an annual payroll of $1,600,000.

The bond issue would be supported by a 1 1/4 mill tax levy on all real and personal property in two tapers! Set a basket of chilled fruit on the table. Then by what could be more appropriate on a summer day light evening meal? Jellied consommé... right from the kitchen... and piled high in shimmering amber mounds is "cool" starter. Club sandwiches... featuring one layer of chicken salad made from canned boned chicken... provide a course.

In the day, place cans of consommé in the refrigerator for Prepare the sandwich fill-chill too! About 1/2 hour serving, make the sandwich like this:

'N' Ham Club Sandwiches
(12 to 15 slices for 4 or 5 sandwiches)
1 can (2 1/2 ounces) deviled ham
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Few drops Tabasco
Combine all ingredients in bowl. Chill if desired.

To Make Each Sandwich:
Spread toast on one side only with butter. Spread bottom layer with chicken salad; top with lettuce and another slice of toast. Make second layer of lettuce, tomato, and cucumber slices. Spread ham on third slice to top sandwich (ham side down). Cut into 4 triangles. Makes 4 or 5 sandwiches. FNS

Young Girl Drowns Near Corning

The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williams of near Pocahontas.

Paulus Elected Mayor of Warren

WARREN, Ark. (AP)—E. T. Paulus, an oil mill executive, carried every box yesterday in a election to pick a mayor to fill the unexpired term of the late Byron Herring.

Paulus polled 477 votes.

His nearest opponent in the four-man race, Alderman Amos Warren, got 279 votes. James Ernest got 207 and Dewey self 143.

Paulus term expires at the end of this year.

Confessed Slayer of 14 Is Hanged

BOMBAY (AP) Sadhu Valiabhadras Shandas, 35-year-old confessed murderer of 14 persons, was hanged today 111 short of his target. He claimed that Kali, the goddess of destruction, had called on him to offer her 125 human lives.

Compromise Foreign Aid Bill Passes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed a compromise $3,536,200,000 foreign aid bill. This sent it to the Senate which, with comparable speedy action, could send the measure on to President Eisenhower today.

The roll call vote was 253-153. Voting for the compromise bill were 179 Democrats and 74 Republicans. Against it were 85 Democrats and 67 Republicans.

The House acted after brief debate.

The bill still is some 300 million dollars under Eisenhower's recommendation for this year.

But passage of the pending bill, which is an authorization measure setting a ceiling but not actually appropriating money, would not mean the end of troubles for foreign aid at this session.

Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La), chairman of a House Appropriations subcommittee which will draft the actual financing measure, has said repeatedly he will try to cut down the amount.

British to Protect Illegitimate Children

LONDON (AP) Parliament has approved legislation legitimizing children of adulterous affairs—provided the couple marry.

The bill removes the stigma of bastardy from 3,000 living children.

Previously the parents had to legally adopt their offspring so they could inherit.

Variety of Weekend Food Bargains

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Varied cuts of beef and pork are featured this week in many of the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores.

Rib roasts and steaks seem to have a slight edge over chuck and hamburger meat in number of offerings. Prices of the more expensive cuts are irregularly lower, meaning that reductions in price outnumber advances. In most cases changes are in the 4 to 6-cent range.

Pork specials similarly run more to the higher priced items such as hams. Pork chops are marked up 3 to 4 cents a pound in some areas, but even ready smoked and fresh hams are priced as low as 39 cents a pound. Turkeys are the No. 1 attraction in a few places, as are frying chickens. Prices on the latter are a cent or two weaker.

Eggs are mostly unchanged. Outstanding vegetable bargains this week are sweet corn, snap beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, radishes and green onions. Good buys include cauliflower, celery, Western topped carrots, endive, escarole, broccoli, tomatoes and yellow onions — although somewhat higher this week.

Moderate buys include egg plant, lettuce and peppers. Outstanding fruit buys are bananas, pineapples and limes.

At one time the French claimed a North American empire reaching down to the Gulf of Mexico.

Some Chatter From Around Wall Street

NEW YORK (UPI)—The correction now underway in the stock market is not likely to be of major proportions, says Bache & Co.

Analyst Martin Gilbert of Van Alstyne, Noel & Co., says the market's hesitation appears to be merely a consolidation phase in which the list is absorbing some of the sharp gains of recent months.

He says uncertainties stemming from the steel strike and the foreign situation are only temporary factors and "the market will soon reassert itself."

The fact the steel strike started just a few days after the leading averages reached to new highs "would seem to be more of a coincidence than a cause of the moderate reaction that has taken place," says W. E. Hutton & Co. The backing and filling should be looked upon largely as a technical affair and not a reflection of what is happening in the steel industry, it adds.

Hayden, Stone & Co. lists Island Creek Coal, General Railway Signal and Sperry Rand as three stocks which have lagged behind the market and which may be in for a price rise.

Value Line recommends Bigelow-Sanford, Lowenstein and Manhattan Shirt for long-term investment in the textile industry.

Film Couple Observes 30th Anniversary

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It passed unnoticed in a Hollywood that pays more attention to the more transitory of marital unions. But it should be recorded that this month marks the 30th wedding anniversary of Irene Dunne and Dr. Francis Griffin.

The pair sought no publicity on the event and Miss Dunne declined to expound on how to make a marriage last three decades in Hollywood. "I might break the spell," she laughed.

Preston Foster is rounding out his first year as host-greeter at the new Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas. You might think his fine acting talent should be put to better use, but he says he's enjoying the life.

Harry Belafonte finished out a smash engagement that saw the 3,000-seat Greek Theater filled to the brim for three weeks. He leaves for some more concert dates in the west, then plans to play the Soviet Union.

The singer continues to grow as an entertainer and has the audience riveted to attention throughout his show.

Seldom has there been divergent opinion on a film as has met "Porgy and Bess." The critics have either embraced the movie or picked it to pieces. I side with the pros. There are faults in the film. Some numbers, principally the wake scenes, are poorly staged. And I wish there had been more outdoor shots instead of sticking to the Catfish Row indoor set.

But the over-all effect is an artistic experience. The cast has more verve and acting skill than you usually see in a musical. Even so, the star of the movie is George Gershwin. He created the best score written by an American, and the soaring quality of the music remains unchanged by familiarity. How much richer our musical legacy would be if he hadn't died at 39!
